

AST Applicability Chart

Aboveground Storage Tank (AST)

The AST is related to the Spill Prevention & Countermeasure (SPCC) and the Facility Response Plan (FRP) programs

Do you store Petroleum product? Applies to all oils – vegetable, animal, petroleum, synthetic, fuel, sludge, etc. No Yes Do you have total storage capacity of above ground storage greater than 1,320 gallons? Applies to 55 gallon drums or greater Yes No, you are not required to follow Yes, your facility is required to follow the AST the federal AST regulations, but it regulations. For more information, go to the is recommended you contact your UST/AST section of this port resource compendium. local and/or state environmental agency to determine if there are Spill response requirements - Facility AST responsibilities. Response Plan (FRP) You are required to prepare a Spill Prevention Control Countermeasure (SPCC) plan. In some cases you will be required to also prepare a Facility Response Plan (FRP).